We are incredibly grateful for Jerrie's tireless dedication, inspiring messages, and unique ways of connecting people to God (whether preaching, through his blogs, or even running barefoot!). Jerry always reminds us: "Try not to learn very much-find a mustard seed." Let's celebrate the big ways God works through small, faithful habits!

Transition Monitoring Team – This meeting will be 15 minutes after this evening's closing prayer, and last no longer than an hour.

Potter's Children Can Ministry – We still have plenty of cans to be filled to help these children. The cans are on the table in the foyer for your convenience. Just fill them up with your spare silver change and when the can is full, turn them into the office. Potter's Children will pick up the cans on July 3rd. Thank you for helping these children and for your generosity.

Kids & Youth News

Attended Nursery is available during AM and PM services for infants and toddlers. Ask a lobby attendant if you need directions to the nursery.

Boys & Girls 6th grade and under – To get a reward on Sunday's, please write down the songs sung and scriptures read, during service. Give them to Pam Strong in the library after service, and get your reward.

Invite your friends. V.B.S. They will have fun!

News and Notes

Celebrating a Milestone: 100 Episodes of "Gleaning Mustard Seeds"

Please join us in congratulating our interim minister, Jerrie Barber, on reaching his 100th podcast episode! For nearly two years, Jerrie has been sharing short, powerful spiritual truths aimed at helping us turn faith into daily habits.

This milestone broadcast titled "A Porch, a Podcast, and 100 Mustard Seeds," features two very special guests: his daughter, Christi, and his grandson, Braden. It was actually Christi and Braden who first inspired and encouraged Jerrie to start this podcasting journey! In this week's episode, they sit down together to reflect on how it all began, the joy it has brought, and the mountains it has helped move.
